. Official Publication via the Internet in the JPO Website

Know about "Official Publication via the Internet"?

The JPO developed the website called the "Official Publication via the Internet" and started publishing "Registered Utility Model Applications" via the Internet in January 2006. And also, since there were relatively high demands for the earlier publication for "Registered Design Applications", the JPO started publishing them via the Internet in January 2007.

Publication Data in "Official Publication via the Internet"

There are two types of downloadable Publication files via the Internet. They are in ZIP or TAR archive format. (They differ only in archive formats but their contents are identical.)

E-signature

Publication file downloadable via the Internet include E-signature in accordance with RKCS #7 specification. Detail information of E-signature Publication file name is available at the following URL: http://www.publication.jpo.go.jp/html/e-signature_en.htm
