
Contents & Abstracts

■ Intellectual Property in the Digital Network Society 2

Masaru ITAMI

■ Partial Amendment of “Guidelines for the Use of Intellectual Property under the Antimonopoly Act” (January 21, 2016) 6

Katsuyuki IZUMI

Japan Fair Trade Commission released a partial amendment of “Guidelines for the Use of Intellectual Property under the Antimonopoly Act” on January 28, 2015 in order to clearly show about bringing an action for an injunction by the Standard Essential Patent holder. This article introduces and examines this amendment.

■ A Relation between Design or Brand and Innovation 26

Kazunari SUGIMITSU

This paper outlines the recent studies in the field of business management on a relation between design or brand and innovation. The author indicates a relationship between the studies and intellectual property.

■ Nontraditional Trademarks and Well-known Trademarks- A Issue raised by the Hermes Birkin Bag Case - 35

Nobuhide OTOMO

This article shows a desirable role of the trademark law of Japan to protect well-known marks. The analysis of the recent case on the infringement of the three dimensional trademark “Hermes Birkin Bag” illustrates the relation between nontraditional trademarks and well-known trademarks.

■ Presentation of SOFTIC’s Activities 45

Yoshi KUSAKA

SOFTIC, which stands for software information center, was established as the registration agency of program copyrights. The SOFTIC also provides software escrow agent service and ADR service on software disputes etc.

■ Recent Developments at WIPO..... 56

Ken-Ichiro NATSUME

WIPO has been implementing various activities not only on traditional intellectual property systems but also on a wide range of fields such as international cooperation, analysis and information services on intellectual property. This article covers WIPO's function as an information source/think tank and recent international debates including PCT.
